Dr. Jayne's ALTERATIVE

This valuable preparation combines all the medicinal virtues of those articles which long experience has proved to possess the most safe and efficient alterative and deobstruent properties, procuring for it a world-wide reputation as

THE GREAT PURIFIER OF THE BLOOD AND RENOVATOR OF THE SYSTEM.

Whenever the economy of the life-giving fluid has been vitated, it should be immediately called to help. It drives out pernicious humours, stimulates the absorbents, overcomes the obstinate state of the pores of the skin, regenerates the disordered organism, reestablishes health and spirits, and brings back a bright colour to the pallid complexion.

Thousands of testimonials establish its immense success for curing Scrofula or King's Evil, Skin and Mercurial diseases, Boils, Carbuncles and Ulcers, Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, Enlargement and Ulceration of the Bones, Joints, Glands or Ligaments, Erysipelas, Epilepsy, Gout, Rheumatism and all diseases originating from a depraved and imperfect state of the Blood.

DR. JAYNE'S ALTERATIVE is compounded from carefully selected drugs; free from all mineral admixtures and may be Safely Relied on by all needing a medicine to build up the system, cleanse the blood and restore the healthy action of the secretive organs.

Al Publico

P. DILLEMANN y Ca., para evitar juicios erroneos en el asunto de la marca PESCADO, hacen constar:—

1°. Que sacaron en el año 1874 Patente por la marca PESCADO en Francia.

2°. Que sacaron Patente de la marca PESCADO en el año 1876 en la Republica Argentina en toda forma para los articulos de FERRETERIA y CUCHILLERIA que acostumbran introducir en este mercado, como marca de COMERCIO y de FABRICA, la cual les fué concedido para SU USO ESCLUSIVO. La Patente fue publicada durante un mes en los diarios, segun lo prescribe la ley, sin que hubo alguien que hubiera protestado contra ella.

3°. Que habiendo sido introducido una imitacion y falsificacion de su marca, acusaron criminalmente la casa que habia cometido este delito. La casa en cuestion, los Sres. Mantels y Pfeiffer, fue condenada y la sentencia publicada en los diarios por cuenta de ella.

4°. Que recien durante la tramitacion del proceso la casa de Mantels y Pfeiffer busco hacen valor la patente de un fabricante en Francia a la Carpa, y pidio su registracion para Coutaret Denise y fils, la que les fue negada por la oficina de patente por ser PROPIEDAD EXCLUSIVA de P. Dillemann & Co. en la Republica Argentina, como marca de COMERCIO, y de FABRICA.

5°. Por ultimo recurso se dirigio la casa de Mantels y Pfeiffer al ejecutivo en apelacion para obtener el registro de la marca Carpa, y el Exm. Gobierno ha tenido a bien, concederles parte, de lo que es PROPIEDAD NUESTRA, adquirida en toda forma, como lo prescribe la ley.

6°. Al fin diremos, que todos los ferreteros que vienen a nuestra casa, saben que si la marca Pescado ha adquerido una cierta fama es porque hemos trabajado durante muchos años, a espender los articulosde esta clase en la mejor calidad.

En cuanto a las apreciaciones, que ciertas personas se han permitido hacer de nuestro modo de proceder, no hay necesidad de defendernos, 32 años de vida comercial en esta plaza bastan para habernos hecho conocer.

AL PUBLICO

La casa de Dillemann & Co. ha creido conveniente llamar la atencion publica por medio de los diarios sobre una cuestion de marcas que ha tenido con nosotros y que ha concluido ahora con nuestra mas completo triunfo.

A estos publicaciones queremos unir:

1. Que la marca carpa (UN PESCADO) es la propiedad de los fabricantes en cuchillería Srs. Contaret Denise & Fils quienes lo posen hace mas de 60 años.
2. Que nosotros hemos presentado poder de dichos fabricantes.
3. Que si la casa de Dillemann & Co. ha hecho registrar aqui en su nombre la marca pescado era con el evidente objeto de usurpar los derechos de nuestros representados.
4. Que es ridiculo de Dillemann y Co. llamar imitation y falsificacion los cuchillos importados por nosotros y comprados al fabricante verdadero dueño de la marca desde 60 años.
5. Que Dillemann & Co. no son fabricantes sino introductores como nosotros, no tiene valor su pretension de haber anotado la marca Pescado como suya en un pueblito de Francia cuando debian registrarlo en el Ministerio de artes y oficios de Paris lo que no consta que hayan hecho.
6. Que por toda cont sticion a todos los desahogos de los Srs. Dillemann y Co. agregamos el decreto del Gobierno Nacional.

Por los fundamentos del precedente dictamen del Sr. Procurador General de la Nacion queda sin efecto la resolucion de 24 Octubre 1878 por la que la Oficina de Marcas de Fabrica y Patentes de Invencion denego a los Srs. Mantels y Pfeiffer la marca CARPA que estos solicitaron en representacion de los Srs. Coutaret-Denise et Fils para articulos de cuchiteria, y vuelva el espediente a dicha Oficina para que sin perjuicio a los Srs. Dillemann & Co. verifique el registro correspondiente en los terminos de la Ley.

ROCA
A. del Viso.

Como se ve este decreto pone fin a cualquier polemica y no justifica de ningun modo el proceder de la casa de Dillemann & Co. a pesar de sus 32 años de vida comercial en esta plaza.

Mantels & Pfeiffer.

ZOEDONE

THE NEW DRINK
A restoring & stimulating but non-alcoholic
BEVERAGE
Letter from Dr Lucas, Bombay, Medical Dept. Author of the Elements of Indian Hygiene etc.
"I am of opinion that your invaluable aerated beverage Zoedone deserves the highest attention at the hands of the Indian public. It is not only a health giving drink but essentially, containing as it does the quadruple phosphates of Iron, Lime, Potash, and Soda, a health restoring drink par excellence, reviving and refreshing the vital powers. It would be a blessing indeed if we could see it introduced into hotels, restaurants, regimental messes and canteens. To weakly females in India it would decidedly tend not only to the amelioration of their own health, but that of their offspring, the future generations of men and women. I need scarcely allude to its indication as a remedial and dietetic agent in cases of malarial cachexy, phithis etc."
Letter from Geo. S. A. Ranking, M.A. M.D., Cantab. Surgeon, Indian Medical Department.
"I am of opinion that in Zoedone is to be found a complete solution of the problem which has long exercised the minds of the Medical profession in India, viz., the discovery of a beverage which shall assuage thirst, restore nervous waste, and while being palatable, be also non-alcoholic. It is my firm conviction that if Zoedone be introduced into India it will meet the requirements of those who wish to restore their nervous system without impairing their lives."

SATURDAY, APRIL 23, 1881

SULPHURIC ACID COLLAPSE.

It is very remarkable that, notwithstanding the extravagant consumption of almost every imported article by the masses in this country, native manufacture very rarely succeeds amongst us. The consumption of paper in this city is simply extraordinary, nevertheless we have made many vain attempts at starting a paper mill. Our cloth factory, even supported by the Government, and bolstered up by the Provincial, has come to such continued grief that our readers will not be surprised at the winding-up notice of the concern that will be found in another column. True it is that some of our manufactories are self-supporting and give good results, such as fideos, flour, mani oil, and a few others, but, as a rule, we are unsuccessful in the line of manufactures; and, since we cannot even succeed in washing our wool and shipping it to Europe as the Australians ship theirs, it is hardly to be supposed that in articles whose manufacture calls for the very highest skilled labour we can for many years to come progress much.

The closing of Mr Maxwell's sulphuric acid factory in Barracas is a matter that calls for remark, since this most important factory was not deficient of either skilled labor or capital, or a market for the sale of its produce. Mr Maxwell, some two years ago, started his establishment in Barracas. Mr Lamas, the President of the Club Industrial, visited the place in March 1880, and published a description of the works in the Industrial of that month. In September 1879 Mr Maxwell delivered to Messrs. Guerri and Lamas the first product of his establishment, which was the first sulphuric acid ever manufactured in this Republic. Professor Kyle and other experts pronounced it excellent, and the whole Club Industrial centred their best hopes in the new factory. Subsequently a Sr. Barran, seeing that it was a success, applied to the Government for a privilege to establish, for a certain number of years, a sulphuric acid factory—but the Industrial Club very properly opposed it, on the ground that Mr Maxwell had already established his manufactory in Barracas, and was working without any privilege whatever.

Mr Barran's petition for a privilege was, therefore, most properly rejected, and thus Mr Maxwell had no competition to contend with; the news, therefore, of the closing of his establishment has proved all the greater surprise; and on enquiry into the matter we learn that Mr Maxwell having received tempting offers from the Brazilian Government with a free gitt of land for the factory, and exemption from taxation of all the primary articles he imports for the manufacture of sulphuric acid, has determined to give up the Plate and remove his establishment to Rio.

Mr Maxwell's experiences in Barracas are not the most favorable; struggling as he was to found a new and most important industry in this country, he was certainly entitled to some little protection, and it is a most striking proof of the difference of statesmanship in the two countries, Brazil and the Plate, that whilst in Barracas he had to pay an import duty of 25 per cent on every primary article he consumed, and moreover a patente, in Brazil he is not only freed from all such taxation, but receives from the Government a present of land whereon to start his factory. The local manufacture of such an important article as sulphuric acid, is not destitute of a political importance which none of our public men see, but which in Brazil they thoroughly appreciate. Such industries in their infancy need some better support than is afforded here. We grasp at too much in charging import duty on materials essential to such manufactures, and although it is possible some other will succeed Mr Maxwell in Barracas, still we hold that the pioneer of so useful an industry merits some better treatment than what, we regret to say, he has received.

EDUCATION.

Ex-Presidents Sarmiento and Avellaneda rendered great services to the country by their successful efforts in spreading education throughout the Republic, from the banks of the Parana and flat territories of the South to the unbeaten tracks of Jujuy and Salta. Strange enough, our statesmen have viewed the educational question from too high a standpoint for the generality of the people and failed in acquiring a standard high enough for the individual talents of the few.

Thus, primary education is much neglected and the teaching of the present day is altogether too abstruse for the majority of the people in the Republic. Wonders cannot be worked in ten years, nor can one expect the ignorant 'paisano' of the Pampa and of the Interior to be immediately changed into a first-class scholar. The population of the Republic is too scanty to support all the ardent admirers of Saphpo, Anacreon, Simonides and Theocrites: the country needs more schools of arts and trades, more ordinary education than the classical lore imbibed now-a-days.

Who can expect the Argentine Republic to thrive when all her sons are either studying Homer and Virgil, or will not study at all if deprived of them. Such an education will bring on a host of sophists, peripateticians, epicureans and stoics, who would be far better engaged tilling the fields, hammering in the dock yard, or plunging into the bowels of the earth searching for minerals and testing gold with nitric acid.

If the present educational system is at fault in the primary spheres, what can we say of the superior grades. This very generality of superior teaching weakens its effects. What the Government should drive at is to acquire a first-rate educational institution either in the capital or some other place, where those who may afford it can study and emerge from the benches as well-versed as any student from Bonn, Heidelberg, or Gottingen, It is far easier to realize this object than to strive in vain to endow every province of the Republic with a National College, a phalanx of teachers and rows of empty benches,

M. Hippeau, in his late work on education in the Argentine Republic, finds too much to admire in the present system: it is certainly a credit to the country and to the men who initiated the beneficent movement, but it is too perfect for the meagre population of our Interior provinces, and too imperfect for the eminence of University education in particular.

Besides nobody can overlook the evils of the present system, in spite of its many dazzling points: the country wants mechanics and men taught to work. The difference between the learned and labouring elements is too great for the country to support. As affairs are progressing, the country will boast of numberless lawyers, doctors, engineers and so-called 'literatos', who shine more in politics, in the forum, and in the pulpit, than in the Santa Fe wheat fields or the unexplored forests of the Chaco.

The present Minister of Education should direct all his attention towards centralizing university education and spreading primary schools over the country: the latter are necessary, whilst the former is only an ornament. University education produces gentlemen, who can only thrive on the more ignorant qualities of their neighbours in their respective careers: a man sprung from the University of Buenos Ayres will certainly not sow potatoes and flax nor shear the wool off the sheeps' back, and the country can only support a limited number of such men. Happily, of late years, immigration has come to the rescue and has saved the country from a surplus of brains, which could only have found an outlet in a situation like that which the Banda Oriental is at present preparing to go through. Even the fifty thousand immigrants who land here every year are not a sufficient balance for the number of young men who enter the different scholastic careers of life.

MONTEVIDEO

The 19th of April was the anniversary of the Independence of the Banda Oriental. All good Orientales, like all good Christians on holy days, joyfully celebrated the auspicious event with good cheer and flowing bumpers. The anniversary dawned upon a situation pregnant with danger and impending strife; may the shades of the 33 heroes save the country from revolution; the ashes of San Martin did not stem the current of events last June in B. Aires. Orientales can only appeal to fate.

The President's proclamation fell like an Orsini bombshell amongst the people. President Vidal has certainly the very best opinion of Santos. Latorre meantime is eating sour grapes in Yaguarou, in company with his old and cherished confederates.

We are living in an era of political manifestoes; first came Latorre's, then Santos's, and limping, like justice, behind the rest, comes Vidal's. The porters of the Government House are also getting one up ventilating their opinions and protesting against the state of affairs.

The announcement of the organization of a revolution committee in Buenos Aires, for the purpose of buying arms and sending them over here has fairly startled the people. It is to be hoped that the Argentine Government will put a stop to this affair and checkmate these fiery patriots.

On the heels of the news of the revolutionary committee came the rumors of troubles threatening from Entre Rios. It appears that some Entre Rianos were fomenting disorder on the river and an attempt was being made to pass over arms; the troops here were immediately moved to the spot. The affair created no end of conjectures, and many thought matters worse than they actually looked. The matter, however, has blown over; it was all moonshine. Nevertheless, rebels have always found considerable sympathies in Entre Rios.

It is whispered that Latorre is at last on the move. Santos's note has galled him considerably, whilst the President's proclamation will irritate him even more. It is, therefore, not to be wondered at if troops are being concentrated on the much threatened frontier.

Our old friend Courtin, who left the country, owing to the great insecurity of life and property, is busily engaged, if we are to believe the papers, buying gunpowder and shot. Whilst Latorre attacks from Yaguaron, Courtin is supposed to flank the Republic and drive his legions right into the very heart (the Greeks would have said liver) of the country.

There are so many stories flying from mouth to mouth that credence can be given to none. In Government circles the greatest placidity is the order of the day.

It might be superfluous to inform you that trade in general is at a complete stand-still, owing to the exceedingly unsatisfactory state of affairs. Haberdashers, grocers and merchants all look as gloomy as possible; there are traces of anxiety on their countenances, and the great question is, if comestibles will rise in value.

The only people who view the situation with great confidence are the lawyers and medical men. No wonder. Moltke says that war brings new men to the front. These gentlemen, of a more practical turn of mind, view the situation in the shape of greedy heirs, mourning widows and broken bones. Thus many thrive on the misfortunes of others; it is a most melancholy fact.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The news from Montevideo yesterday shows that the expected rumpus down there cannot be very far off now. The troops of the Line, which have been doing police duty in Montevideo since Latorre's time, have been sent back to their barracks and have been replaced by policemen, as formerly. A diplomatic conference was held at the Government House on Thursday, the whole Cabinet and the Brazilian Minister being present. The latter expressed his astonishment at the nomination of Magariños, and there was a stormy discussion. By way of answer to President Vidal's proclamation about Santos, a monster meeting of natives and foreigners is being got up, to let the Government know that Santos is the most unpopular man that ever held a 'cartera.' We shall soon have a lot of visitors from Montevideo, in return for the numerous batch we sent down there in June 1880.

Chile is going to settle down permanently in Peru. The Santiago Government summoned a conference of notables at which it was decided to continue the military occupation of Peru, but to make the administration a civil one, in the hands of Prefects. It's a hard pill for poor Peru, but there can be little doubt that the Chilian administration she is about to have will be a far better and firmer one than she has ever been able to provide for herself, or she would not be in her present plight.

The papers to be read to-night, on Shakespeare, at the Literary Society, by Messrs. Martin, Ryan and Pressinger, will certainly attract a large concourse of the members. The name of Shakespeare has a charm which Time not only cannot efface but enhances as the centuries roll on, and so it ever will be with the fame of the greatest and most versatile literary genius the world has ever seen, and it is not likely that it will ever see his peer.

People were still talking yesterday about 'School.' Everybody said they would like to see it again, and not a few suggested its repetition, say on Her Majesty's birthday, the 24th May, as none of the actors will have forgotten their parts by that time.

The Goya papers give a horrifying account of a poor woodcutter being devoured by a tiger on the islands up there. Pieces of his body, his gun and his hatchet were found lying about in the wood, and it is presumed that the tiger sprang on him suddenly while he was engaged in felling a tree.

A cheer for the Lord Mayor! Yesterday two cartmen were arrested for carrying loads of sugar barrels over the legal weight. Each of the carts had ten arrobes too much in it. We are truly rejoiced to announce this first step towards putting a stop to the atrocious cruelty practised on horses in this city by overloading the carts to which they are harnessed.

The Pampa reports all kinds of dodges going on to escape enrolment in the National Guards. Patriotism where art thou?

The population of the Santa Fe wheat colonies is increasing at a truly prodigious rate. In 1876 it was only 24,042, but now it is 45,080 nearly 100 per cent, increase in five years. The nationalities are:—

Argentines	19,441
French	2,293
Italians	15,482
Germans	1,731
Swiss	4,178
Spaniards	500
English	311
Belgians	64
Poles	10
North Americans	134
Other Americans	931
Other Europeans	423
	45,580

The large total of 'Argentines' is due to the fact that most of them are very young Argentines. We did not think there were so many Britishers and North Americans up there. The extent of land cultivated and the returns therefrom have increased even in a greater ratio than the tillers.

The Italian Exhibition presented a gay scene on Thursday, as it was crowded all day with the children of the Italian schools of this city. Such a merry throng and such fine children, the little girls showing every type of Italian beauty, the Ansonian characteristics of the boys being less marked.

The Democrata has published a most eloquent article on the departure of Dean Dillon and the mission on which he is gone to Ireland.

Most of the papers here are facetiously severe on President Vidal's tea-and-muffin proclamation about his War Minister, Colonel Santos.

Our Paris Letter, on fourth page, gives interesting particulars about the murder of the Czar and a sketch of the personal qualities of the new Emperor and Empress. It appears that the latter is likely to be the real ruler of the great empire, as she is very clever. A Danish subscriber told us the same thing the day the telegram came about the Czar's assassination. In Denmark 'Dagmar' is known to be one of the cleverest and most accomplished women in Europe, with a strong spice of the 'vice of noble minds'—Ambition. They like her in Russia too, as her sister, the Princess of Wales, is liked in England.

To-morrow, Sunday, there will be Mass in San Francisco Church, at the usual hour 1 o'clock p.m., and after Mass there will be a sermon in English by the Rev. Kenelm Vaughan. Confessions are heard every morning by one of the Passionist Fathers in the Merced Church.

We received a valuable piece of information yesterday from a fair subscriber, viz, that black, in whatever material, is the correct thing for ladies' dresses this year.

We see that the well-known English grocery store at 19 Reconquista, formerly belonging to the late Mr Henry Quin, is advertized for sale. It is a splendid chance for an industrious man with a small capital.

The Nacional had telegrams yesterday to the effect that the works on Brother Walls's railway to the Santa Fe colonies were commenced yesterday by Mr Largula C E.

The installation of Governor Roach is fixed for to-morrow, Sunday, week. His inaugural address is looked for with some anxiety.

Three of the dial faces of the clock at the Cabildo are cracked. This wont do by any means for the capital of the Republic,

The Chamber of Deputies will attempt to insist on its previous vote raising the salaries of its members to 60,000 m|c from 40,000 per annum, As the Senate rejected this unanimously, the same unanimity must be shown by the Deputies for the Bill to pass, but as some members oppose the step the Bill will fall through. So much the better. Most of the Deputies are overpaid at $40,000 a year for all the legislation they do.

We take the following from the Daily Evening Traveller of Boston—

"The Continental Telephone Co., of which Col. H S Russel is President, organised under the laws of this State, and chartered to a business in Russia, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Central and South America, West Indies and Mexico, have been quietly at work during the past year acquiring patents and concessions, under assignment of the inventor, Alex. Graham Bell, and are now in complete and controlling possession of telephone rights in their territory. Amongst recent valuable acquisitions, important ones are concessions from the Governments of Uruguay and Argentine Republics, obtained through the co-operation of Mr Walter S Keyser, of Buenos Aires, who has just arrived and is now in this city. A company has been formed to operate the telephone Exchange system in the cities of Buenos Ayres and Montevideo, with a capital of $500,000, the Continental or parent company retaining a controlling interest. The steamer of the 5th of April will carry out instruments, wire and equipment for exchanges, and Mr Keyser will go with them to assume the duties of resident manager of the enterprise. He is a gentleman well-known and esteemed in business circles there, where he has been a resident for 14 years, and is well qualified to undertake and carry out the project.

The Libertad says that the Municipality is about to make another application to the National Government to have the Beneficencia Lottery re-established. If there is no other way of raising money to prevent the scandal of putting three lunatics in one bed in our Mad House, the Lottery must be fallen back on. The report about the city hospitals in the Lord Mayor's Memoria is simply harrowing. Before the Lottery was abolished such a state of things was unheard of.

The Nacion gives an amusing list of the political parties in Spain, which number eleven and are split up into 26 fractions. How is it that men of Spanish blood, are so much 'off their heads about' politics. In England politics are considered a miserable waste of time, except when some great principle is at stake.

A young fellow named Madariaga was serenading his lady-love at Concordia one moonlight night last week when her respectable papa rushed out and spitted him, like a partridge, on an old lance. The unfortunate lover died next day. A nice old gentleman to have for a father-in-law.

The complaints against the Post Office are becoming loud and more general every day. We see them in many of our colleagues. The Provincias says the P.O. administration is going straight to the dogs, and, as an instance, offers to prove that a registered letter, addressed by a person here to a friend in Montevideo, and containing $300, was violated, the money abstracted, and the letter re-addressed in the handwriting of the very clerk who gave the receipt for the letter. This affair requires immediate investigation.

Governor Roach is offered another banquet to-day, at Ensenada, and Quilmes is preparing one for him next week. He'll have a rest from public feeding when he becomes Governor, and he wants it. We have never before seen so many public dinners given to a public man as to our distinguished countryman, Dr. Roach.

Another important bit of news from Paris is that all people can now become noblemen without the trouble of having had any ances tors, people for whom the famous Marshal Davoust had such a profound contempt. A Radical Deputy has moved a Bill in the French Chambers, a Bill to sell titles of nobility to Tom, Dick and Harry at the following rates—Dukedoms £400 a year; Marquisates £300; Earldoms £200, Viscounts £100, and the use of the aristocratic de £80 per year. We should much like to hear Lord John Manners's opinion about this Bill, especially as it is also proposed to deprive the 'old nobility' of their titles unless they choose to pay up. This queer Bill reads like a joke, but it is not, only one of too many signs that France is likely to have a 'burst' at the end of this century as she had at the close of the last.

There is news of the discovery of a valuable copper mine at Iruya, Province of Salta. The whole of the Upper Provinces are a mass of minerals, and it will be worked very speedily when the railway extensions are finished. Now is the time to 'denounce' mines by the dozen in the Interior. Whoever does so will be strutting about this day ten years with £15 a minute income, like our countryman Bonanza Mackay, who frequently gives his wife a present of £30,000 or so, to buy a necklace or any other diamond bagatelle she may take a fancy to, and it is said she takes a lot of fancies in this expensive line.

The memoria of the Mortgage Bank was the absorbing topic on 'Change, and seldom have we seen any memoria more looked for, or more universally praised, and Dr Llambi Campbell, the President of the Bank, has indeed proved the right man in the right place. Although we cannot squeeze into this column all the interesting details given in this pamphlet, we may give a few facts that will show the holders of Cedulas that they hold one of the best stocks in this market. That the Bank proposes to the Government to close the issue of 8 o/o Cedulas and issue a new Series of 6 o/o, which of course means that the 8 o/o Cedulas will soon be at a premium and the tendency in the market runs so, as 8 o/o stocks in this place are now allrapidly advancing to a premium, owing to the scarcity of stocks and the accumulation of capital. Owing to the war last year the business of the Bank was much interrupted, nevertheless the Bank gave on new mortgages $f.864,400, and the amount of Cedulas withdrawn from the market during last year, by amortization, paying off mortgages, &c., is $f.1,617,760. Of mortgages made last year—

102 on city houses	$f.4 9,600
10 on houses, country Towns	50,300
6 on chacras	30,800
26 on estancias	363,700
	$f.864,400

The estancias mortgaged were in the following partidos—Chivilcoy, Bandi, Necochea, Castelli, 9 de Julio, Juarez, Ranchos, Monsalvo, 25 de Mayo, Loberia, Bragado, Azul, Giles, and Tapalque. There are deposited in the banks in this city 2,037,000 Cedulas, and in the Mortgage Bank in the names of the owners $f.3,498,650. In the private banks belonging to European holders there are—

River Plate Bank	371,400
Italian Bank	843,750
Carabassa Bank	194,150

Besides the above there are 4,365,100 Cedulas issued in the name of the holders, which gives a total of $f.9,931,750 held for permanent investment and not in the market for sale, but to the foregoing we have to add the Cedulas 'rescatadas'; thus of the 18,278,050 Cedulas issued the account stands so—

Cedulas deposited	3,498,650
Cedulas rescatadas in Treasury	1,991,600
Cedulas in owners names	4,365,100
Cedulas in banks	2,078,000
Total	$f.11,923,350
Amount in the market	3,364,700
Total issue	$f.15,278,050

In May 1876 the Cedula touched its lowest 53, and in Jan. 1873, the Cedula reached its highest, 98½, it looks now, however, extremely probable that the Cedula will surpass this and go to PAR. The report before us shows the perfect solvency of the bank; the liquidation of the greater portion of its bad debts, and the necessity of closing the 8 per cent series, and issuing only 6 per cents henceforward. Last year the total of the bad mortgages was estimated at 2,037,950 $fts, of which $16,245,500 amortized. Last year from these properties foreclosed, the bank received 996,000 $fts and only 7 of these mortgages proved bad. The Directors are now busy closing up this account and hope by the end of May to have all the bad loans entirely liquidated, written off and closed. Respecting the debt due to the bank, it is quite clear, from what the President says, the building must be paid for by the Provincial Bank to the Provincial Government, who now occupies more of the place with its offices than the Mortgage Bank people; therefore the concern about the debt due to the Bank really amounts to little, since, as Dr Campbell shows, the two millions credit in the Provincial Bank could not be employed in making a grand bank building. In 8 years the Mortgage Bank, for its purely bank business, only needed from the Provincial Bank 195,485 $fts. All the other advances were for accounts which the Government must defray, as they are not covered by the provisions of the law creating the credit. We hold the pamphlet for further study.

It will much interest the market to know that at last the Provincial Government is about to start another agricultural colony such as the one at present at Olavarria. The new colony will be situated at Guamini, which will prove a great help to people about there and give a new value to all those splendid camps.

This morning's leader in the Nacion on the monetary "Necessities of this Market" attracted such great attention and general assent on the Bolsa to-day that we give the following "precis" of it. It goes to prove what we have maintained for some time past, viz, that the country is gradually coming round to specie payment.

"Buenos Aires is the commercial centre of the Republic, and as such not only the regulator of the local national markets, but also, through the foreign exchanges, of those of Paraguay, Banda Oriental and part of Bolivia. Gold is wanted here now to supply the saladeros in the rivers. Where can we get it, to supply the want, avoid exaggerated speculation in it, and reestablish equilibrium in our circulation? Paper money is useless for this purpose.

"In the beginning of winter the saladeros require a large amount of gold; travellers also start for Europe and take away gold, thereby causing a loss of equilibrium which we should prevent and avoid. This can easily be done by putting in circulation even a part of the gold the Provincial Bank holds in Europe; and, although we must not ignore the risk of throwing gold on a market flooded with inconvertible paper money, the measure is both expedient and necessary, to restore the normal circulation of this coin, which is required more or less in all markets, to settle commercial transactions.

"We, therefore, want gold, and who is to get it for us? The Provincial Bank—which may feel safe as to the coin not returning to Europe (except in small sums) as it may fairly be supposed that exchange will remain favourable, at 49½ on London and 5.21-22 on Paris, in view of the natural progress of the country, and, even if the demand for our produce should fall off, so long as the balance of trade is in our favour, or, at least, not against us.

"Wool, for example, has been depressed for an unusually long time; there were 30,000 ar. in stock this time last year; there are 2,800,000 ar. to-day, according to the most reliable calculations, the deficit in export being 63,000 bales. In spite of this, our foreign trade is in equilibrium, and our exports will certainly increase in future, and thus keep up exchange, the real regulator of which is production, apart from some secondary causes.

"How can the Bank put the gold we require into circulation? By discounting commercial bills, payable in gold, at 60 or 90 days, or on such special terms as the Board may impose, solely as a guarantee, not an impediment. The advantages of this operation are palpable, as by supplying the market with the gold it requires, a rise in the premium is avoided, the equilibrium maintained, and speculation baffled; by putting gold in even limited circulation a sense of the necessity of returning to conversion will also be awakened. Neither law, expediency, or its own interest can possibly be opposed to the Bank lending gold on bills payable in gold. The market and its credit demand it; and the action of the Bank in keeping its gold locked up is simply inexplicable, when through the necessities of the market paper money is falling in value, and it is its duty to improve its value by putting the gold required into circulation.

"Some may say that all the gold in its vaults could not supply what is wanted, as the saladeros alone require 1½ million, irrespective of other demands. Let us see. The balance-sheet of the Bank for February (that for March is not out yet, although it ought to be) showed $f.1,631,188 in gold on hands, and the amount is now probably $f.1,990,000; it has also $f.1,203,000 in other coin, quite enough to supply all the gold and silver required in the market for a given volume of trade. But, if this should not be enough, it has here ½ a million in National Bonds, which it can sell, and $f.3,100,000 gold in Europe, the proceeds of the sale of National Bonds there some time ago. There this large sum only obtains 1½ or 2 per cent per annum; here 6 per cent can be had. If the Bank should require money in Europe for any purpose, it has an open credit there for $f.2,000,000 gold, and if it does not like to use it, it can easily send its Bonds as guarantee for an advance.

"Over three millions in hands, over three millions more lying in Europe, and a credit of two millions more, make EIGHT MILLIONS OF HARD DOLLARS IN GOLD, all lying idle, when it could produce immense benefit to the country. Meanwhile the Bank's notes fluctuate, and it does nothing to improve their value, thus depreciating its own paper, an extraordinary and almost incredible proceeding. While the Bank acts in this extraordinary way, private banks are afraid to discount, and, when they do, make quick and enormous profits, to the injury of trade and industry.

"The Bank has nothing to fear in the operations suggested. The Government of the Province owes it 11 millions, and, to consolidate this, if it gave even 4 per cent instead of 6 per cent Bonds, they could be pledged for 5 millions gold and; if the National Government should consolidate its debt of 16 millions, 12 millions of gold could easily be raised on all these Bonds, to meet every eventuality. With good will, prudence and sound judgment the country might still get some profit out of a Bank that has given it so much paper money."

PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

March 24th.

The deed of the 13th March will leave another streak in the history of Russia. Although Count Melikoff had all the millions he desired, and increased the number of secret police from 600 to 3,000, he could not turn aside the fatality that the Czar was to be destroyed in the street of his capital and by ordinary citizens. Were he murdered in his palace and by his nobles, the event might be viewed as less tragical. Teola, who claims to be an authority in Russia, would perhaps find the latter event natural: he has just announced that the future of all the Russians will be Naturalism, or nothing. The first process has not yet been tried, and the second is now an old nostrum. Alexander III. is not yet felt to be sufficiently free to state his intentions, or rather give evidence of them by acts. The proclamation and circular note are viewed as but mere formalities; he cannot walk in the footsteps of his father. He must abolish the restrictive laws; accord civil and religious independence; guarantee the personal security of his subjects and obtain order in the finances of the State. He must take up the work of reform, where Alexander II., in a scare, left off; re-examine that white-elephant present to the serfs—their emancipation: give them sufficient land on which to live, and abolish rack payments in the form of taxes and onerous instalments for price of proprietorship. Solomon was a wise man, and Sampson a strong one, but both together could not pay, if they had not the money. The Russian nobility so far resemble the French aristocracy before 1789: they are exempted from bearing the fiscal burdens of the state.

Not that the Russians demand a republic; that's a cure of which they have no conception, and show their good sense by never adopting it as a plank in their platform. When education shall have done its work, the people will be duly sovereign. In any case, Russia may be expected to be the last to join Hugo's poetic United States of Europe. There are 15 millions of dissenters in Holy Russia outlawed, tracked by the police, and punished as criminals. They are actually in the same position as the Huguenots after the revocation of the Edict of Nantes. The defunct Czar emancipated the serfs; the present ruler can emancipate concience, and cease to impose his doxy, his official god, one and indivisible. The maintenance of a million of soldiers fully explains why so many millions of peasants are starving. Until the political surgeons attack these gangrenes, their prescriptions of Siberia, the rack with electric appliances, and the gibbet, will have for contre-coup, palace explosions, street mines, nitro-glycerine bombs, and the intellectual chaos which seethes, in an empire situated between the old world and the new.

People, despite the horrible cause, smile at the deceased Czar being provided in his coffin with a wooden leg; the fact is, that his lower extremities were shivered into atoms, the particles of flesh and bone being kept together merely by his clothing, and as he has a uniform instead of winding-sheets, and had to be exposed to view, it was necessary to arrange the body accordingly. His boots and flesh were literally pounded into a pulp: the left foot hanging by a tendon, was turned heel frontwards; his gloves had to be cut off bit by bit; his abdominal wound recalled the Japanese happy despatch. So mutilated, it is unnecessary to add, all the reports as to his last words are so many myths; when he arrived at the palace there was not a pint of blood in his body, so the doctors were not wrong in deciding that traufusing blood into the veins of a dead man was useless. The piece of carpet on which the body was laid to be snrgically examined, has been secured by the Princess Vorouzoff for a family relic. At the moment of the assassination, the Czar's morganatic wife, the Princess Jurierska, (nee Dolgorouski) was visiting her sister: she at once rushed back to the palace, aided the doctors to lay bare the wounds, and so continued till the new Emperor entered, when she retired—and permanently.

The truth about the people is they display neither coldness nor indifference, but a something-like calm of 'nichero,' to employ the untranslatable Russian phrase. Yet they ought to be satisfied, for Alexder II. fell, as Trojan said all Emperors ought to do, standing; he was not at all popular since his 'liaison' with La Dolgorouski: the Father and the Pope of his people ought not to have descended to the vice of having a mistress, as if he were a Louis XIV. The new Empress will take care that in this respect, at least, Alexander III. will not follow in his father's footsteps. More than Russians count upon her efforts to obtain the reforms the empire stands in need of: as she rules the heart of the Emperor, she thus holds in her hands the destinies of 80 millions of her fellow-creatures: with the exception of rather thick lips, she is beautiful. But is not the Baltic the home of the northern syrens? Daughter of 'the king of the sea.' She has courage, and she inherits from her mother charity, homely shrewdness and proverbial tact. She and her husband are, in addition, comrades; both like study, and, above all, music. She rides like an Amazon, and on review days accompanies him dressed as a Cossack colonel—something as an aide-de-camp. She is surrounded by sage advisers. In her boudoir are all the souvenirs of her youthful days: some of her toys served to amuse her own children. Being the moiety of her husband, she must ever be prepared to share his dangers, and equally interested in averting them. Yesterday she was sheltered by the throne: to-day she has ever to meditate the aphorism of Joseph de Maistre—'Russia is an autocracy, tempered by assassination.'

France has had of late a few cares, despite the formidable proof of her financial soundness, in the monetary world giving her fifteen milliards, when she asked for but one, and depositing in earnest money alone three milliards. There are wheels within wheels, driving the Bey of Tunis astray: he has done more to irritate France and to merit punishment than when his former neighbour, the Dey of Algiers, in 1830, struck the French Ambassador with his fan, and was mulcted in his realm for damages. Sooner or later France must annex her Transvaal: it is necessary for her extension. Tunisians must make way for Frenchmen: Red Indians for Americans, Turks for ——? Instead of allowing the Chamber of Deputies to regulate a question appertaining peculiarly to shop, that of its mode of election and with which the Executive, the offspring of Deputies, had nothing to do, the chief of the Cabinet, and M. Grevy, unfortunately, muddled into making the matter a personal one, against the advice of the best heads, and thus leading to a split in the Republican ranks. The country, true to its good sense, saw no such vital importance in the matter, but considered M. Gambetta's plan, 'scrutin de liste' gave more independent and educated politicians than the scrutin' by parish, as advocated by M. Grevy. The Ministry was divided in the matter, and, it was urged, they ought to remain neutral. That opinion, Gambetta's, seems to have triumphed, so he has again scored an inning. It is urged that the 'scrutin de liste' will enable M. Gambetta to be returned head of the poll for forty departments, instead of as many parishes; that will likely be one result, and will illustrate what no one doubts, that one-half of France is in harmony with Gambetta. If his opponents desire to lessen his importance they must effect that by superiority of programme; but it is not the 'intransigeant' press and its ribaldries, nor the monarchical journals and their sneers and 'salon' epigrams that can injure the great Tribune, who not later than Sunday last, before 8,000 members of the Commercial Union, branded as maniacs the apostles of Utopia, who claim to remake society in 24 hours, by first annihilating all that exists.
